BEFORE COMPLETING

Please note that the purpose of these awards is to promote the work of the demolition industry.

Therefore, the project information, photographs, video and other material you submit may be used for print/online publication by the World Demolition Summit (WDS) and by Demolition & Recycling International (D&Ri) magazine in its coverage of the WDS.

D&Ri may also use the information and material you submit for general print/online coverage of your project. If you do NOT wish for D&Ri to use your project information for general editorial coverage, please tick this box:

If you are happy for D&Ri to report on your project submission but wish to keep some parts of it confidential, please contact Leila.Steed@khl.com directly.

Please read and consider the following:

- BE SURE that you have read and understood the Entry Rules below.
- BE CONCISE – this entry form has specific word counts for each part of the submission.
- BE PUNCTUAL – the deadline for entries is 28 June. Entries received after this date will NOT be accepted.

- BE PATIENT – you will be notified of the shortlisting process result in August.
- BE AWARE that the international judging panel who will decide the awards have more than 300 years of industry experience between them.

The tone of your entry should reflect this. It should be written in plain English and avoid jargon, but please do not over-simplify or 'dumb-down' the content.

- BE CERTAIN that you have completed ALL sections of this form.

ENTRY RULES

- 1) All entries must be on an official pdf entry form.

AWARD STATEMENT

Tell the judges about your demolition project.

This award will be made to contractors involved in specific projects that required a high degree of collaboration between all parties involved, including demolition contractor, main contractor and client.

Your statement should show the levels of collaboration achieved and the benefits that these generated to achieve a successful outcome.

The judges will require full project details indicating any elements whereby collaboration was essential in achieving successful completion of the overall project and/or specific phases. Maximum 1,500 words.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Please provide a summary of your project for online/print publication by the WDS and D&Ri magazine. Maximum 250 words.

KEY PROJECT POINTS

Please supply FIVE bullet points outlining the key aspects of your project for print/online publication by WDS and D&Ri. Maximum 20 words per bullet point.

SUPPORTING MATERIAL

The judges will require statements/information from all involved parties concerning their individual view of the success of collaboration. These should be included as supporting material.

Please provide a list of all supporting information you are submitting, as outlined in the 'What you need to submit' section below.

Please note: the photographic and video material you submit may be used for online/print publication by the WDS and D&Ri. Please provide here details of any copyright credit(s) required.

WHAT YOU NEED TO SUBMIT

- 1) Your company details and contact information.
- 2) Project summary.
- 3) Awards statement - max 1,500 words.
- 4) Executive summary for online/print publication by D&Ri magazine - max 250 words.
- 5) 5 project points - max 20 words each - that outline key aspects of your project for online/print publication by D&Ri and the WDS.
- 6) Supporting material:
 - Max 5 pdf documents of additional project information.
 - Your company logo (high resolution Jpeg, PNG or EPS format).
 - High resolution photographs of your project entry (max 25 in Jpeg format).
